11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

My mother and father fell in love with each other rather quickly. It was only a span of two months between their first meeting and quiet betrothal. They waited for a significant period of time before going public with the happy news. It simply wasn't time. Love's strength and speed can sprout scandal in public. Until the big reveal, they gave the outside world only little hints, gestures, and riddles.

Something like this — but even more wonderful — is at play when Mark says of Jesus, "he did not speak to them without a parable, but to his disciples in private he explained everything." Jesus is the long-awaited messiah-king, but his identity as the Lord and Son of God is so new, surprising, and scandalous to human ears that the big reveal would have to wait. Thus, his parables are riddles, meant to conceal more than reveal. Even the disciples — who hear things explained directly — barely grasp what he is up to. It's only at the cross that Jesus' love for Israel and the world is explicitly revealed. Until then, much stays hidden and comes in riddles.

So it goes with us, too. I wonder at times why doesn't the Lord just speak to us directly in prayer about what we should do, or how to fix our problems. Or why doesn't he reveal himself directly to powerful leaders who are slow to act? Why does he allow life so often to be confounding, contradictory, and crazy? Because it simply isn't time yet. One glorious day, it will be. Until then, he teaches us in riddles, and only sometimes explains them.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Faith can start small, Jesus tells us — as small as the tiniest seed on earth. But it's up to us to surround that seed with good, nutritious soil, to nourish it with sunlight and water, and to tend to it lovingly so that it will grow.

SAINT OF THE WEEK EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

St. Thérèse of Lisieux

Short Bio

St. Thérèse of Lisieux (1873-1897) was a French Carmelite sister whose autobiography has inspired Catholics across the world to deepen their relationship with God. She died at 24 from tuberculosis and is currently the youngest person to be named a Doctor of the Church.

"For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil."

- 2 Corinthians 5:10

We are all accountable for all of the gifts God has given us — our time, our talent and our treasure; everything we have and everything we are. Each of us is accountable not only for our own life but for the lives of others as well. One day God will ask each of us what did we do with the gifts we were given. How will you respond?

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Gospel Differences

Question:

Why do the Gospels differ in their details? I was surprised to learn that not all of the Gospels tell the same stories, for example, the Nativity. Doesn't this take away from their credibility?

Answer:

Take any event that happens, from family trips to national politics and ask two or three different people to explain what happened. You will get a different version of the same story. People tend to tell the story from their perspective, and past experience shades what we recall and how we recall it. Our choice of words and what details we leave in or out is also influenced by the audience who is listening to our tales.

The Gospel writers are no different. Each one tells the story of Jesus from their own perspective. Versions differ in some details, not because one is true and the other is not, but because each Gospel writer, or Evangelist, has a different theological point to communicate as well as a different audience for whom he is writing. He picks and chooses the details of his Gospel based on what message he is preaching, what his audience may already know, and what message they need to hear. The various details of the Gospels point more to their authenticity as a record of the church's experience and understanding of Jesus. In a good study Bible, the background notes for each Gospel contain a lot of information that helps us better understand each Evangelist and his message.

The month of June is devoted to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. During the month of June, this takes place in our parish with devotions to the Sacred Heart on Mondays at 11:30AM in English and on Wednesdays and Fridays at 6:45PM in Polish at the Sacred Heart worship site.

The following are promises our Lord made to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, an apostle of the Sacred Heart in the year 1675. She and St. Columbiere were instrumental in establishing the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

I will give you all the graces necessary for your state in life.
I will establish peace in your families.

I will comfort you in all your afflictions.

I will be your secure refuge during life, and above all, in death.

I will give you a special blessing to all your undertakings.

Sinners will find in My Heart the source and infinite ocean of mercy.

Tepid souls will grow fervent.

Fervent souls will quickly mount to perfection.

I will bless every place where a picture of My Heart will be exposed/honored.

I will give to priests the gift of touching the most hardened hearts.

Those who will promote this devotion shall have their names written in My Heart – never to be blotted out.

May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be praised, honored and adored now and forever.

PRAYER TO THE SACRED HEART

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, source of all goodness and healing, you have loved me from all eternity. Now I ask for the grace to love you in return.

Please increase within me your gifts of faith, hope and love. I offer you my own heart, wounded by sin, crippled by unkindness; but not beyond your power to make whole again. Jesus, I ask that you continue to touch me, calm me, and heal me. Teach me to be gentle and humble of heart, to be patient and loving. In you I live and move and have my being. In you I am healed. Keep me close to you and the life and wholeness that you bring. When I stray, give me the grace to accept your invitation to return to you. Glory to you, O Most Sacred Heart; glory and praise and thanksgiving today and every day. Amen.

*Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place my trust in you.
(Say 3 times.)*
